DISCHARGED AS ROBBERY SUSPECT

Friends Indignant at What They Term Their Unceasing Work Keeps Us Strong and Healthy.

Unjustifiable Suspicion of Agent All the blood in the body passes at Junction Station.

Assistant to the general manager.

S. B. Grimshaw, with the penitentlary bloedhounds immediately went to the scene of the robbery in a special train and the mounted police also aided in a finest thorough search for the supposed bandits without avail.

It was thought that the scent of the mea who did the job had been obliterated by the tracks of others who erated by the tracks of others who had had walked back and forth across the trail. At any rate the dogs failed to take any trail and the search was given up as hopeless, Traveling Freight and Passenger Agent A. L. Grimshaw arrived in the city yesterday, but could not be located last night to confirm the story of the discharge of the agent.

NATIVE BOY'S FOOT CUT OFF BY TRAIN Enrique Hogatis, a Mexican boy, lost a foot Tuesday afternoon by failing under a moving freight train, says an Alamogordo paper. It is said that the boy with others, Mexicans and Americans, were jumping on the cars and riding through the yards, when this boy fell and had a foot cut off.

ACTRESS SUES SANTA FE FOR $25,000 DAMAGES Miss Violet Rosedale Cavell, an actress whose home is in New York, has filed, suit in the district court against the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe califord for $25,000 damages which for injuries received in a wreck which accurred near Newton, Kansus, last September. Miss Cavell, who is a vaudeville herress, was making the trip from Los Angeles to Kansas City, and when the train was near Newton !! left the track and the plaintiff claims she received such injuries she was compelled to cancel all of her engagements. The petition further states that she suffered from the nervous shock and internal injuries which will incapacitate her from following her profession as an actress.

Miss Cavell was doing impersonations of Mrs. Leslie Carter for which the plaintiff claims she was receiving a regular salary of $600 a week, and that her contract called for an entire season's performance at this figure. The action is brought by Thomson. Stanley, and Frice & Davis, attorneys from Kansas City.

WE DEPEND upon the patrons of this store for its most effective-advertising. Every one of our customers will some time—somewhere—say words that count for or against us. It is a fact of which we are keenly sensible that one displeased customer can do any store much temporary injury. This being so we cannot afford to have displeasure on the part of our customers—any of them—great or small—rich or poor—and if anything has occurred or shall occur in the course of trading here that is unstatisfactory, will you not as an especial favor advise us of the facts and we will most gladly adjust the wrong. We know our friends will not expect us to smooth up the little rough spots and annoyances until we have learned of their existence.
